While absent he visited Boston, New York, Philadelphia and Washington, in company with a number of native Cuban teachers, who were on a sight-seeing visit to this country.

The Cubans, a remarkably bright set of people, were not only surprised by the improvements in American cities, but were impressed by the magnificence and size of the buildings, being accustomed in their own country to seeing only one and two-story structures. Because of the opening of his school next week Mr. Hutchins was compelled to return home, but Miss Esther remained with her father, Major M. C. Hutchins, to take a trip to Porto Rico on the transport McPherson, of which Major Hutchins is Chief Quartermaster.

HERALD OPERA OPERA CO.

It Delighted a Large Audience in a Pennsylvania City.

ending journal.

"Olivette," with its irresistible comedy and many bright musical numbers, well staged and richly costumed, completely captivated the large and somewhat critical audience at the theater last night. The reputation which preceded this company of some twenty old members was well sustained. The cast is one of great excellence, as evidenced by repeated and hearty encores, and without doubt the strongest in the city that has ever appeared here.

Miss Eliza Stetson's "Patti Waltz" served to display a voice sweet as a silver chime and of remarkably wide range. Harry Nelson's singing, which was heard to advantage in "Answered," a song introduced by request. In fact, the entire drama, ensemble and the animated and concerted work of a well drilled and powerful chorus elicited hearty applause. The company has promised to return.

The above company of twenty-five artists will play at the Washington Opera-house two nights, commencing Monday night. They contract from New York City. The Herald Square Opera Company is one of the best opera companies on the road this season.

The present "Olivette" Friday night and "Olivette" Saturday night, September 7th and 8th. Seats now on sale.

Over 2,000 Democratic Precinct Election Boards, 110 Democratic County Election Boards, and a solid Democratic State Election Board—every one of them created by Mr. Gabel or his agents—centered their following vote cast at the election held in Kentucky on Tuesday, November 17th, 1908.

New York has 1,300,000 people who are not connected with any Church and who care nothing about any Church. Next to Tokyo, Japan, it is the largest heathen city in the world.—News Item.

Here's a loud call for Missionaries to go to Tokyo.
Of course, there's no possible need for them in New York.

The Lexington Leader "interviewed" members of the Legislature who were passing through that city on their way to Frankfort. The results in two cases were—
"Representative SHARP of Nicholas said he would vote for any bill favored by the Good Democrats."
"Representative ALEXANDER of Mason had little to say except that he would favor any measure which would insure Democratic success in November."

That's it.
Way back yonder in the good old days "helo de wah," and when its Volunteer Fire Department was the pride of Philadelphia, it was resolved to refreshen the Fairmount Engine with a coat of paint.
Number of suggestions as to the proper color, when one enthusiastic "Saxxy" settled it with—
"Mr. President, I move to paint the engine any damnel color so it's red."

The Bulletin, in an attempt to show that the Scott county Jury that tried the Hon. CALB POWERS was not "a partisan Jury selected to convict," as the Republicans contend, says—
"The records of the Scott County Circuit Court prove conclusively to an unbiased mind that there is nothing in their claims, for these records show that the Powers Jury was no more largely Democratic than the usual run of Juries in that county of late years."

It then recites the misfit fact that the Powers Jury was composed of "8 regular Democrats, 2 Brown Democrats, 1 Republican and 1 Prohibitionist," most of which is not true, for 10 out of the 12 Jurors were Goeblers.

To further sustain its contention that the Powers Jury was not "fixed up," it has, at an immense sacrifice of labor and after great research, issued a statistical report, showing the political standing of former Scott County Circuit Court Jurors, which THE LEADER gives in condensed form—

	Dem.	Rep.
1865-Grand Jury	10	1
Petit Jury	23	10
1866-Grand Jury	11	1
Petit Jury	24	5
1867-Grand Jury	10	2
Petit Jury	25	11
1868-Grand Jury	11	12
Petit Jury	24	8
1869-Grand Jury	8	11
Petit Jury	27	6
1870-Grand Jury	20	6
Petit Jury	30	12
1871-Grand Jury	11	1
Petit Jury	42	8
1872-Grand Jury	10	2
Petit Jury	22	3
Totals	494	102

Here we have, for the various terms of Court held in five years, 404 Democratic Jurors summoned against only 102 Republicans—within a small fraction of 4 to 1;—and in a county that cast only 2,218 votes for GOEBEL against 1,868 for TAYLOR—a Democratic majority of only 350! It is left to the hair-splitting mathematicians to figure out just what the fair ratio should be; in the meantime it must be apparent, "to an unbiased mind," that Scott county has been in the past, as it is now, thoroughly Cantinflized. It's dollars to doughnuts that there isn't another county in all the state, where the parties are so evenly divided, that can produce a showing equal to this.

REFUSES TO RETURN HOME.

Middlesboro (Ky.) Girl Was Stolen Several Years Ago Found Out West.

Middlesboro, Ky., Sept. 1.—Many years ago Sam L. Hunsinger, a Swiss butcher of this city, had his little daughter stolen from him. Detectives were put on the track, and two years ago a girl answering to her description was found out west.

Hunsinger was satisfied that the girl was his daughter, so he sent her $100 for her fare home and other expenses. As soon as the money was sent the girl was never heard of again, until one day last week, when she was located in Arizona. Hunsinger telegraphed her the necessary transportation home, when she again refused to return home.

Coal Miners Quit Work.

London, Ky., Sept. 1.—Two thousand coal miners have quit work in this county. The entire Jellico district, covering several counties of this state and Tennessee, have also quit, demanding a higher wage scale.

Legislators Attend Fair.

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 1.—About two-thirds of the general assembly attended the Shelbyville fair, and there was no business session in either house. The senate held a formal session at 2 o'clock and adjourned till Tuesday, as there is no business ready to take up and Monday is Labor day.

Kentuckians Will Compete.

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 1.—It has been decided that 40 picked men of the local battalion of the Kentucky state guards will go to the St. Louis exposition October 1 to compete in the interstate military drill for a $1,000 prize under Capt. C. W. Longmire.

Are Too Many Grapes.

Richmond, Ky., Sept. 1.—Henry Cook, colored, aged 19, employed by W. D. Oldham, ate too many grapes, and died four hours later in great agony. When examined his stomach was found to be clogged with the fruit.

Compare it with other local papers, and then say, if you can, that THE LEADER isn't the best, and that it doesn't give the most for the money. Can't you afford to have it left at your residence for a month? Mr. Hal Curran will be glad to book your order.

Cured of Chronic Diarrhea After Thirty Years Suffering.

"I suffered for thirty years with diarrhea and thought I was past being cured," says John R. Babson, of French Camp, Minnie and Buffalo, who has been cured of his chronic diarrhea after thirty years suffering. He writes: "I had spent so much time and money and suffered so much that I had given up all hopes of recovery. I was so feeble from the effects of the diarrhea that I could do no kind of labor, could not even travel, but by accident I was permitted to find a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy, and after taking several bottles I am entirely cured of that trouble. I am so pleased with the result that I am anxious that it be in reach of all who suffer as I have." For sale by J. J. Wood & Son, Lexington, Ky.

News, news, news! It's enough to give a man the blues. Nobody married and nobody died; nobody broken an arm or a head; nobody came in to talk of the "crap"; no one got boozy and started a scrap; no one got run for taking a horse; nobody buried anybody born. Oh, for a racket, a riot, a fuss! Someone to come in and kick up a fuss; someone to stir up the peace-laden air; somebody's comment to give us a scare. Somebody thumped within an inch of his life; somebody run off with another man's wife; someone come in and pay up their dues; anything, anything, just so it's news.

WAS IT A FAR

The Verdict in the Powers Case Conservatively Considered By a Republican Paper.

Hartford (Conn.) Journal.

It is an unexpected verdict. The Kentuckians who listened to it in the Georgetown Courtroom showed their surprise in their faces, we hear. The prevalent impression had been that the jury would report a disagreement. Is it a just verdict? Was Powers an accessory to the murder of William Goebel? Did he personally procure the firing of the fatal shot, or have a guilty knowledge that it was to be fired? We don't know, and we don't believe the jurors know. Undoubtedly Taylor and Powers and the other Republicans in the possession of the state offices at the time the murder was committed did an imprudent, ill-advised thing when they brought the armed mountaineers to the scene of the crime. It is just as certain that there are large excuses to be made for their error. They knew that Goebel, who had obtained his nomination by fraud and violence, would stick at nothing in the execution of his purpose to possess himself of the Governorship and the whole machinery of state administration. They were assailed by absolute unscrupulousness, with violence (masking under the forms of law) behind it. We suppose that one of the mountaineers deliberately or impulsively, sober or drunk—fired the shot that killed Goebel. We do not think it has been proved beyond a reasonable doubt—or proved at all—that Powers planned for or counseled the crime. We have no doubt that perjury had an innings on the Georgetown witness stand, and that offer of $100,000 for convicting testimony—taken in connection with the ancient history and the Courtroom showing of the state's evidence—creates a presumption as to the side on which the bulk of the perjury was committed. Can it be said that Powers had an impartial trial when the Judge, the Public Prosecutor, the Sheriff, and two-thirds of the jury were his political enemies, and when the whole atmosphere of the Courtroom was hot with political passion? The fact that the one Republican juror and the three jurors who were John Young Brown Democrats last year occurred in the verdict, and did so without any long discussion in the jury room, should have all the weight that justly belongs to it, but the other fact, that the eight Goebelite jurors were equally ready to send Powers to state's prison instead of the gallows, should not be overlooked. It would seem to indicate a lurking doubt in the back of their minds.

The chances are, we should say, that Powers won't ever see his life sentence. We wish the state of Kentucky a happy birthday from all her troubles. They are of her own making, though, and she must be her own deliverer.

No inferior or impure ingredients are used in Royal for the purpose of cheapening its cost; only the most highly refined and healthful.

Royal Baking Powder imparts that peculiar sweetness, flavor and delicacy noticed in the finest cake, biscuit, rolls, etc., which expert pastry cooks declare is unobtainable by the use of any other leavening agent.

Alum is used in making cheap baking powders. If you know the effect of alum upon the tender linings of the stomach, touch a piece to your tongue. You can raise biscuit with alum baking powder, but at what a cost to health!

Who said tollgates were all removed, and that we could come to town next Monday without let or hindrance? Just attempt to come to Springdale once and see if you don't run smack an old time loudest aspring right straight across the pipe.
